

BACHELOR OF ARTS (BA)

DRAMA

What is theatre? What is live performance? What does it do? How can it be done? By whom? Why does it matter? Drama majors create, investigate, write, interpret, produce, design, and immerse in theatre and performance. The program is fueled by critical enquiry, collaboration, collective creation and innovation. Changing the World, One Act at a Time.

SUCCESSFUL GRADUATES ALSO WORK IN... public service, health and wellness, journalism, politics, business, technical production, stage management, libraries, law courts, museums.

Playwright, Communications manager, Event planner, Theatre teacher, Dramaturge or Facilitator.

TOP 3 REASONS TO STUDY DRAMA

- 1 Flexibility: The classes provide a wealth of choices and students become incredibly creative 'chefs', creating a degree that works for them.
- 2 Critical thinking: The BA was crucial for exposing me to other people and ideas. The academic work and writing I did in my BA stood me in good stead for when I was applying to my Masters program.
- 3 Artist as Citizen: The BA provided me with a solid foundation as a citizen as well as an artist. I learned that isn't just about the "art" but about what the art can do in a community. It made me think about theatre in a very different way - that it could be political - that it was a way of being heard - that it could challenge and provoke.
